L.G. School District Trustees Turn Down Subdivision Approval

Access Feasibility Study Is Scheduled

The Lemon Grove School District Board of Trustees Tuesday night refused to send a letter to the San Diego City Planning Commission stating that there are sufficient facilities to handle increased enrollment expected from the proposed College Crest subdivision.

Representatives of Lawrence Construction Company, developers of the 18-acre project, were on hand at the meeting to negotiate for the letter, which is necessary in order for the project to be approved under San Diego City Policy 600-10.

The school district had previously indicated that only two requirements needed to be met in order to make school facilities available.

The first involves racial make-up of the development. State law requires that no school in a school district deviate more than 15% from the racial balance of the entire district. San Miguel School, which youngsters from the proposed development would attend, already has a high percentage of black students, and if the development were to have a high percentage of black residents, the district would have to bus students to other parts of the district in order to conform to the law.

The school district's position was that if it were necessary to bus students to other schools, facilities would be inaccessible, and therefore unavailable.

Developers at the meeting cited information from the census bureau and FHA projected population figures which apparently satisfied trustees that no bussing would be forced.

The second problem centered around access to the school. The way the development was laid out, students would be forced to walk a long distance, including a stretch on Massachusetts ave. in order to get to the school.

The development is planned to have access on Mallard st. and 69th st., but no access was planned for San Miguel ave., although a portion of the property borders on that street.

The district had asked that the developers amend the plan to include access to San Miguel ave., which would greatly reduce the distance students would have to walk. Without the access, the distance would qualify the area for bussing, according to Superintendent Bob Sutton.

The developers argued that terrain on that portion of the property bordering San Miguel ave. would make it financially unfeasible to provide access.

After much discussion, the developers finally agreed to make a gift of that portion of the property to the school district, so that the district could provide its own access.

Trustees agreed to make a study of the costs involved in constructing pedestrian access to San Miguel.

Action on whether or not the letter would be prepared is expected at the next meeting of the board, scheduled for October 24.

Three other items of note were handled by trustees at the meeting. The board voted to oppose proposition 14 on

Props. and the Voter

There are 22 propositions on this year's ballot. Many of them are complex. A few of them will be reduced to easy-to-understand language each issue prior to the election.

Prop. 1 (Bond measure)— Permits issuance of $160 millions in state bonds for more junior colleges. If successful, communities may construct or expand by matching state's contributions.

Prop. 2 (Bond Measure)— Authorizes state to borrow $156 millions for more health science schools. Federal will add $97.7 million. Another $71.3 million will come from grants and endowments. The bonds will be paid off from taxes on income, cigarettes, alcoholic beverages, corporations and horse racing. In all there will be $325 million of which about $11.5 million will be spent in San Diego.

Prop. 3 (Legislative Constitutional Amendment) Permits state bonds, not secured by taxing power, for pollution control facilities. State would construct or install these for public sale or lease to provide encouragement and reduced cost to polution control programs. It would overcome financing, the major obstacle to pollution control.

Prop. 4 (Legislative Constitutional Amendment) Provides for two year legislative sessions instead of one. It would increase staff personnel; require interested persons to follow issues or be ready for testimony twice as long, and cancel off-time needed for hearings,, research and investigation.

Prop. 5 (Legislative Constitutional Amendment) School Districts. It permits Legislature to delegate more authority to local school boards and allow citizens and their districts more local discretion in decision making. It is a step away from the growing belief that students are molded into an educational pattern mandated from the state capitol.

McGovern Losing in Mini Poll

Senator George McGovern is sliding downhill in his race for the presidency.

The other day we saw a compact van that carried no McGovern bumper sticker.

The Auto Repair Caper

It had some of the intrigue of the CIA. At first it seemed vastly unfair. Here was that vast group of independent entrepreneurs, which fiddles under the hood of your car for a fee, being attacked by a governmental agency. Government was sending an "undercover" motorist to repair shops against which complaints had been lodged. The motorist's car had a "controlled malfunction". The rest was mechanically perfect.

At each repair station the "trouble" was repaired and a bill handed to the motorist. The bill, in most cases, included a charge for parts, too. That was strange since the malfunction could be corrected without parts. What's more, some of the repairmen found other things to correct but failed to find the only and simple malfunction.

So criminal complaints were filed by the consumer fraud division of the district attorney's office. If found guilty, wrongdoers will face a fine of $500 and possibly six month in county jail.

District Attorney Edwin L. Miller said Thursday that more cheating auto repair shops may expect visits from the DA's undercover motorist against whom citizens file complaints.

There was an immediate and loud reaction from the repair industry. The DA's office was accused of trickery, jumping the gun, and unfairness. Several firms said that "diagnostic judgment" would dictate replacing certain items.

Miller said that he felt that most repairmen are honest. "But we certainly stirred up a hornet's nest," he said.

Law requires that repairmen give an estimate as to the work and the cost of it. It also requires that removed parts be given to the consumer if requested before the work is done. He is required to provide a detailed invoice of the work done and parts supplied. He must have a sign about four feet square advising the consumer of these rights. And there is a telephone number which the consumer may call if he feels that he is being bilked. It is this number — Toll Free 800-952-5210 — that led to undercover investigation of last week's complaints.

Regardless of the reaction to those accused—and one was a Lemon Grove firm—there are some elements that mitigate against the accused dealers.

Most revealing is the amount they charged. Charges ranged from $38 to $63 except for one dealer. He charged $2.50. Since no repairman would dare be caught undercharging for his service, it may be assumed that this repairman was more nearly correct than the rest.

It is certain that this fact will have a profound affect upon jurors, if the defendants demand a jury trial since almost every juror owns an auto and owes a repair bill.

Oh, yes, Of course we'll tell his name. The $2.50 repairman is Chuck Mort, of L & M Tire Services, Escondido. But we suspect you'll have to stand in line with Diogenes to get served.

Netzley to Back French In Race for Supervisor

Gene French, candidate for Supervisor in the Second District, said that he had the support of Byron Netzley recently retired superintendent of the Lemon Grove School District.

He made the announcement at a community meeting at Carman Ranch club last week.

Netzley, presently on a trip, is reported to have told French, and his staff, that he would give whatever support he could to assure French's election.

In a poll in Lemon Grove Saturday, 50 persons gave French a healthy lead. 34 said they would cast for French; 16 said they would vote for Dick Brown. Another 10 said they were undecided.

Meanwhile, Brown released a statement this week announcing that he was instituting libel suits against several county newspapers and individuals in the French committee for the publication of an advertisement September 28 which Brown said libeled him.

Six of 11 opponents in June's Second Supervisorial District primary campaign announced they endorse election of Gene French in the Nov. 7 balloting.

Supporting French, the No. 1 vote-getter in the primary, are Bill Clements, Glenn D. Mitchell, Thomas F. "Pat" Kelly, Jerry L. Smith, George Stahlman and Jack Frost.

Fire Destroys House

A structure fire that caused over $20,000 damage last week was apparently caused by a car left running in a garage at 810 Elkelton blvd., Spring Valley, according to reports from the Spring Valley Fire Department.

The fire, which occurred Friday, apparently broke out at about noon when sparks from the car's exhaust caught flammable material afire in the garage. The flames quickly spread to the house.

The home was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hentz, but Hentz has been overseas with the service and was not home at the time of the blaze. Mrs. Hentz, who speaks no English, could not communicate with firemen via telephone, which complicated matters.

Firemen finally arrived at the scene after a neighbor contacted the station.

High School Board Assails Proposition 14

The Grossmont Union High School District Board of Trustees, at its regular meeting last week, came out strongly opposed to the Watson Tax Limitation Amendment.

A resolution passed by the board indicated that losses for operating local schools could be as much as $4 million and that if approved by voters, the amendment would force the district to reduce the number of teachers, increase class sizes, and reduce course offerings.

Trustee Robert Andreen charged that the proposition, No. 14 on the November 7 ballot, is being fostered by special interest groups.

Trustee Ken Overstreet said that many people are under the wrong impression about the Watson amendment, adding that "They don't realize that the large corporations and big land owners are the ones who are going to profit, not the individual tax payer."

School district superintendent Austin Sellery indicated that the proposal is "made up of vague proposals — adding income here and cutting income there — and no one is really sure what it means."

College Now Owns Second Campus Site

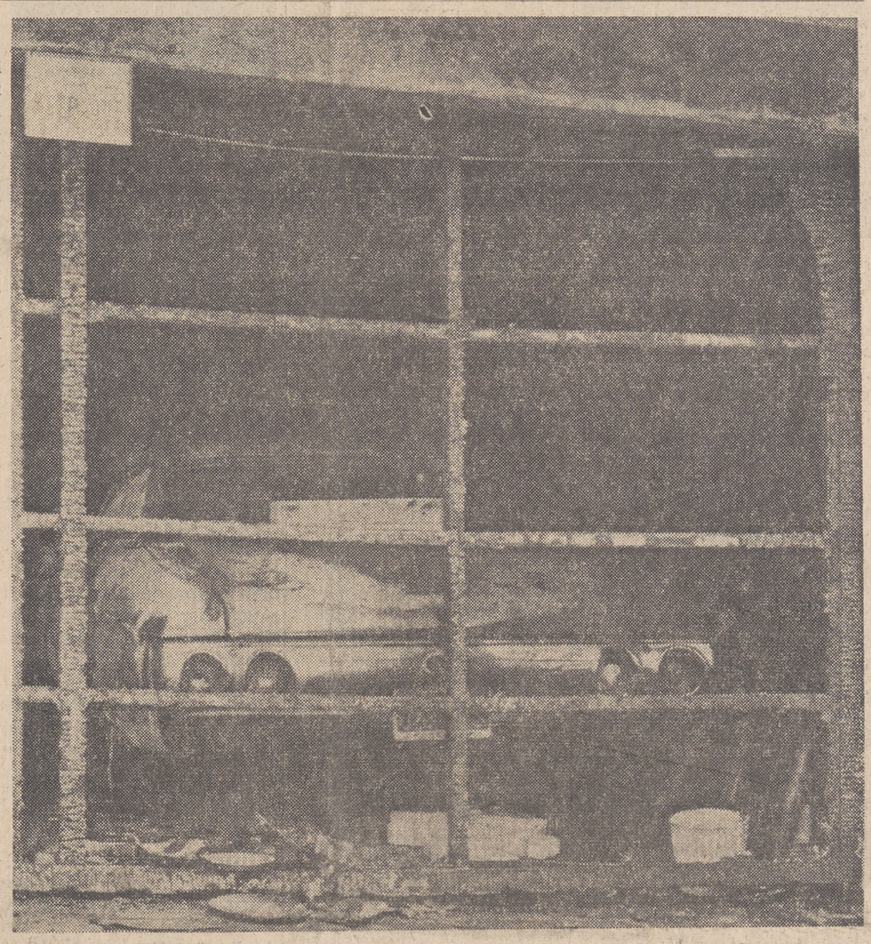
Escrow has closed on the proposed second campus site of the Grossmont Community College District and ownership has passed into the college's hands.

The 165-acre site, located at Jamacha rd. and Copp's lane on the old Monte Vista Ranch, for $1.2 million, of which about $950,000 was paid by the state and the remainder by the district.

The proposed $20 million campus will be constructed with about 75% government money and 25% money from the community, through a bond issue or other means of financing.

The first stages of the construction will be administrative offices, a library, vocational class facilities, and tennis courts. Fine arts and physical education classes will be primarily offered.

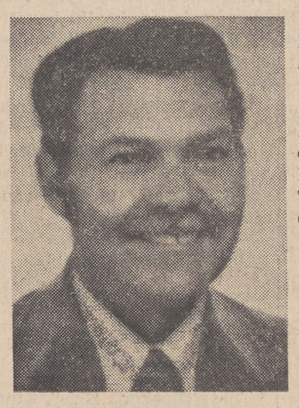
The next step for the college district will be to study means of financing the project. It is expected that the first enrollment at the new campus will not be until 1974.



GARAGE DESTROYED — The garage and kitchen of a home at 810 Elkelton blvd., Spring Valley, were destroyed last week when exhaust from the car touched off flammable materials in the garage. Damage to the home, its contents, and the car were estimated at over $20,000.

Don Pillips, Calvin Strickland Get LM-SV Principal Positions

Don M. F. Phillips and Calvin O. Strickland were appointed as school principals on June 20, 1972, by the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District Board of Education.



Don Phillips

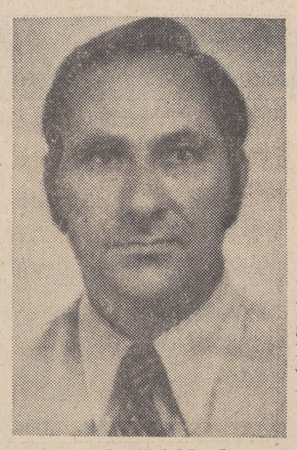
Phillips, now principal at Northmont Elementary School, began teaching in the district in 1954 at La Mesa Junior High School. Since that time he has taught English, social science, and mathematics at the junior high school level, as well as Spanish in grades 6, 7 and 8. Phillips has served as a resource teacher and coordinator with the district curriculum department and during this period assumed a wide variety of responsibilities.

He has been a consultant to the California State Department of Education, NDEA, Encylopedia Britannica Films, and other school districts, in the area of foreign languages, as well as teaching college extension classes and teacher workshops.

Phillip's participation in professional activities as an educator are numerous and include two years as president of the La Mesa-Spring Valley Teachers Association, as well as five other offices in that organization. He has served as chairman of the Laurels Committee, member of the La Mesa Chamber of Commerce, and as an officer with the Committee to Keep Good Schools, Educators for Positive Action, and the San Diego County Teachers Association.

Phillips lives in Spring Valley with his wife Esperanza and family.

Strickland is now serving as principal at Maryland Avenue Elementary School. He attended high school in San Diego, Hardin-Simmons University in Texas, and San Diego State College. Strickland began his La Mesa-Spring Valley activities at La Mesa Junior High School in 1962, teaching English, social science and mathematics. Three years later he moved to the curriculum department where he was a remedial reading teacher and then teacher-enrichment with the department.



Calvin Strickland

During the 1968-69 school year, Strickland received a leave of absence in order to work as a language arts consultant with the Ministry of Education in Jamaica. His work there was associated with a government project, Agency for International Development. He was attached to the U. S. Embassy staff in Kingston and taught in new teacher seminars throughout the country.

For the past three years, 1969-72, Cal was assigned as one of four team leaders at La Presa Junior High School where he became active in the initiation of year-round school. He has served on the La Mesa-Spring Valley Teachers Association Board of Directors, and as a consultant to its Salary Committee, and was chairman of the original Staff Pilot Projects Committee.

Strickland lives in Singing Hills with his wife Joan and two sons, Shane and Brett.

Building Control In Flood Areas Sought by Sups

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The County Board of Supervisors last week took steps to achieve control of development in flood plains of major streams in the county, including the Spring Valley Creek.

The board, by a proposed ordinance that would expire in 1975, would allow no building in flood plains without approval of the board. Flood plains are defined as that portion of a river bed which would be flooded by rain storms of such intensity that occur on an average of once in 100 years.

The board also wants to determine floodways of the creeks, then allow construction outside the floodway on a controlled basis, but not within the floodway. Floodways are defined as that portion of a river bed which is flooded by rainstorms of such intensity which occur on an average of once in ten years.

No construction would be allowed in the floodways, but through increasing elevation or diking, flood plains could be developed.

LM-SV Teachers Get 3.7 Per Cent Raise

The La Mesa-Spring Valley School District Board of Trustees voted last week to accept the recommendation of a three-man fact finding committee to grant the district's teachers a 3.7 per cent salary increase.

The three-man committee, Thomas Brown, James Polack, and Lee Peterson, was made up of one appointee of the school board, one of the teachers association, and one mutually agreed to.

The committee was established after negotiations between the school district and the teachers reached an impasse in August. At that time, Fred Kerth, chairman of the Certified Employees Council, in charge of negotiations on behalf of the teachers, indicated that the teachers would go along with the committee's recommendation no matter what it was. The school board indicated that it did not consider the arbitration binding.

The increase went into effect last week, as the board made no mention of retroactivity. Kerth, however, asked that teachers on the 45-15 day year round school program be given retroactive pay from July. No action was taken on the request.

Morning Parade Scheduled As Old Time Days Event

More than 170 invitations to attend Tuesday night's Old Time Days meeting were not very effective. Nine persons showed up.

Ivan McDermott, OTD president, expressed concern regarding the future of "Lemon Grove's biggest attraction. We need people who are interested to help guide the annual Old Time Days Parade," he said. "We know that the parade is popular because of the turnout for it. Every year the crowd gets bigger. Local business firms as well as non-business parade fans can find useful duties in the annual event."

While the committee meeting was small, it was decisive. It was agreed that the parade would be held on Saturday May 19, at 10:30 a.m. Last year's record event was held on Mother's Day Sunday. It was felt that mothers were entitled to something other than parade viewing on their day.

In addition to changing the parade's day, there will be a Junior Miss contest that will get underway sometime in March. Details will be worked out with local school principals and announced later.

To build up to a climax, the annual carnival at St. John of the Cross church grounds will start earlier. It will be held May 9-13; the Junior Miss contest and other events to be announced will be May 14-19, with the grande finale being the Saturday parade.

McDermott again encouraged participation in the planning stage. Interested persons should call the Chamber office at 469-9621 or the office of this newspaper 469-0101 for details and assignments.

"Merchants can find the parade profitable if they make plans for it," he noted.

Dear Editor:

In an article from Washington, Victor Riesel reports that the Government has $9 Billion in Welfare cash Unaudited! He says that the General Accounting Office states in effect that there is virtually no information on how much is stolen, how many are ineligible or how much of this money can be saved.

This represents hundreds of millions of tax dollars being wasted or stolen — down the drain. It is another example of the wasting of our tax money by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

There are 14.6 million welfare recipients — and they are increasing at a frightening rate. So are the crooks and deadbeats. Does your Congressman know this?

Learn Spanish The Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Fresco" and "fresca" are the masculine and feminine forms of Spanish words which mean "cool" in English. We may use them to say "El dia es muy fresco." (The day is very cool.) and "Es una noche fresca." (It is a cool night.).

"El fresco" can also mean "the breeze" or "fresh air." For example we might suggest "Vamos a salir en el fresco." (We are going out into the fresh air.) or "Es muy agradable estar en el fresco." (It is very pleasant to be in the breeze.).

"Frescas" is a plural form which may be used to express "fresh" as in describing vegetables or meats. This may be seen in expressions like "Las legumbres son muy frescas." (The vegetables are very fresh.) and "Yo siempre compro carnes frescas." (I always buy fresh meats.).

"Fresco" has been used to describe the behavior of persons, especially males, in expressions like "El joven es muy fresco." (The youth is a very fresh person.) and "No me gustan los hombres frescos." (I don't like fresh men.).

In the art world "frescos" are described as "frescoes." The only difference in spelling between the Spanish and English is seen in the second "e" which appears in the suffix. This word may appear in phrases like "Son frescos de Diego Rivera." (They are frescos by Diego Rivera.) and "Siempre pintan los frescos con muchos colores." (They always paint frescos with many colors.).

Practice phrases listed below demonstrate the varying uses of "frescos" and "fresco" in Spanish. You may wish to continue your learning experience by practicing the same words and phrases with the recorded voice that says them for you when you dial 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Que dia tan fresco." (keh DEE-ah tahn FREHS-koh) for "What a cool day."

Say "Me gusta el fresco." (meh GOOS-tah ehl FREHS-koh) for "I like the breeze."

Say "Este hombre es muy fresco." (EH-steh OHM-breh ehs MOO-ee FREHS-koh) for "This man is very fresh."

Say "Frescos tienen muchos colores." (FREHS-kohs tee-EH-nehn MOO-chohs koh-LOH-rehs) for "Frescoes have many colors."

Say "Compro tomates frescos." (KOHM-proh toh-MAH-tehs FREHS-kohs) for "I buy fresh tomatoes."

Say "La noche es fresca." (lah noh-cheh ehs FREHS-kah) for "The night is cool."

Pack 318 Scouts Seek New Cubs

Last week, adult leaders of Cub Pack 318 visited Mt. Vernon elementary school to explain goals of scouting and to sign up new boys for the pack.

Youngsters between the ages of eight and eleven are eligible. The pack meets monthly at the First Congregational Church with weekly den meetings held in area homes.

At its September kick-off pack meeting, after citations were issued for work done over the summer, the boys were treated to a film documentary of a recent National Boy Scout Jamboree in Washington, D.C.

Heading the list of boys receiving awards was Greg Hoaglund who completed his final three Webelos achievements — artist, scholar and sportsman, received the coveted Arrow of Lights award for completing all Cub work successfully, and was graduated into Boy Scouts.

Several boys advanced into Webelos — the senior cub scout program, including two year pin awardees Jay Neuhaus and Mark Wallace. New Webelo Mark Nadeau also received a Wolf badge, one gold and two silver arrows.

Along with promotion to Webelos, Jeff Hoaglund received a two year pin and a recruiter patch. John Obendorfer and Chris Mudd also entered Webelos with two year pin awards.

Bill Sharp rounded out the list of new Webelos while winning a Bear badge, a gold arrow and a one year pin.

Other one year pin awards went to Ricky Feutz, Tom Balaban, Jerry Morgan, Todd Howe, Darryl Mix, Eric Huber and Paul Robbins.

Along with one year pin awards Eric Smith received two silver arrows; Terry Denunzio, a Wolf badge, one gold and three silver arrows; Gabriel Jaureguy, one silver arrow; David Marmolezo, one gold and two silver arrows; and Brent Mendoza and Bill Beckham, a silver arrow apiece.

This month the pack plans a field trip to N.A.S. Miramar.

More than 110 "heart-saving" recipes are contained in the unique cookbook, along with an 8-point guide to simplify a change in diet. Prepared by Ruth Reznikoff, R.D., staff dietitian at the health agency, the recipes fall into twelve categories: hors d'oeuvres, soups, sauces, casseroles, fish, chicken and turkey, veal, beef, vegetables, salads, breads and desserts.

The cookbook is illustrated by Nancy Rupert McMaster, a well-known local artist.

Copies of "Heart Line Recipes" may be obtained for $1 each. Orders may be mailed to any one of the Heart Association's three offices: 3640 Fifth ave., San Diego 92103; 1029 East Valley parkway, Escondido 92025; P.O. Box 1516, Oceanside 91054.

"We recommend that the cookbook be used in conjunction with the leaflet, 'The Way to a Man's Heart'," said Mrs. Reznikoff. "It's available free of charge at our main office. The leaflet explains the low cholesterol, fat-controlled meal plan and contains lists of food to use and foods to avoid."

Girls to be Eligible For Board and Delegate Status

High school age Girl Scouts will be eligible January 1, 1973 to assume Board and Delegate responsibilities in the San Diego-Imperial Council, announced Mrs. John M. Colonell, Council President.

The change in "adults only" policy and planning activities came after review and revision of the Council bylaws by the volunteer Scout delegate body.

Next year will be the first occasion that the high school age Scouts will have an opportunity to make decisions as voting members of the Board of Directors, and as Council Delegates.

The Scouts will be nominated by local communities to serve as part of the annual election procedures of the Council. The local group joins a growing number of Girl Scout Councils across the U.S. involving girls in the overall planning function of the Scouting movement.

Sherri Stogsdill, President of the High School Planning Board stated, "the only way to inspire young people is to let them have the responsibility and authority for decision-making in their own programs."

Approximately 150 volunteers currently serve as Delegates and members of the Board of Directors of the San Diego-Imperial Council. Girl membership is approximately 22,000 with 5,000 active volunteers.

WOMAN

We made the day sunny for a couple of Sunday sailors.

Ernie and Larry had been in the Navy some years ago.
Between the two of them they must've cooked maybe fifty thousand pancakes. Old salts they weren't.
But they had this urge, see, to go in on a boat together. And practical considerations, like families, loan payments, and car repairs meant they'd have to wait a while.
They dropped in to see us.
We set up a savings program for them that fit their budgets and got them their boat in less time than they'd thought.
Because we pay the highest interest on insured savings allowed by law.
Ernie and Larry are now spending their weekends learning to sail. And their wives are spending their weekends laughing.
We help San Diego families make their sunny day plans come true every day.
Come in and let's talk about yours.

Local Residents Graduates Of Special Class

A special class of San Diego County Sheriff's Department personnel recently graduated from a class in Radiological Monitoring Operations at the County's Emergency Services Training Center at Gillespie Field.

Included in the class were three local students, John E. Price, of Jamul, Carolyn J Coartney, of Lemon Grove, and Douglas F. Walters, of Spring Valley.

This course is part of a fifteen unit program given at the Miramar College. Over 450 hours of classroom and field type training are involved in readying the students for service, according to Sgt. W. D. Felkner, Training Officer.

The sixteen hour course in radiological safety includes instruction in the use of Geiger Counters, Ion Chambers and other radiological measuring devices. Instructions regarding radioactive fallout and the hazards of contamination from radiation are stressed in the class.

The course also includes an exercise on peacetime nuclear incidents and accidents. With the increase in the transportation of radioactive isotopes and other radioactive material for industrial and medical use it is necessary that personnel of the safety services know the hazards that can be dangerous to the public.

Orchid Society Sets Open House Sunday

The San Diego County Orchid Society has scheduled an open house for Sunday at the Casa del Prado in Balboa Park, according to open house chairman Renee M. Messner.

Included on the day's agenda are orchid display, a corsage booth, and a flower demonstration. The affair, which is free and open to the public, gets underway at 11 a.m.

Eyes of the pike fish are in the top of its head, enabling it to see prey while in deep water.

Guest Speakers Due At Retired Finance Class

For the past two years the San Diego Adult Education has been sponsoring a class specifically to assist Senior Citizens seeking to improve their knowledge of investments at the Jewish Community Center.

While the course specifically covers the financial problems of the retiree, guest speakers are also invited to speak on related subjects.

Oct. 16, Martin B. Ortlieb, an attorney and state inheritance tax referee, will speak on, "Estate Planning for the Person with a Modest Estate."

He will cover such subjects as avoiding probate, reducing estate costs and taxes, trusts and wills.

Oct. 30, William Hancock, C.L.U., Travelers Insurance, will speak on "A Guaranteed Life-Time Income with Annuities".

The investment course is taught and arranged by Harry Tranter, Account Executive with Walston & Co., Members of the New York Stock Exchange.

There is no charge and the public is invited.

SPECIAL CAB — Elevator cabs of various types are mass produced at United States Elevator Corporation's 250,000 sq. ft. complex in Spring Valley. Specializing in standard size, or off-the-shelf elevator cabs, the firm also builds unusual cars, such as the outdoor glass elevator being assembled above.

Spring Valley Elevator Plant Is Dedicated

Dedication of the largest elevator manufacturing plant headquartered in the West was made Tuesday when United States Elevator Corporation formally opened the doors to its 250,000 square foot production, engineering and administrative complex here.

For the past three and one-half years, the wholly owned subisidiary of Cubic Corporation has increased its sales by more than 100 per cent annually. With present employment about 900, officials of the firm estimate that by 1973 an additional 400 persons will be added to the payroll.

Although sales volume of Cubic subsidiary companies is not reported individually, Dr. Charles J. Breitwieser, executive vice president of the parent firm and general manager of the elevator company, said, sales in 1972 should be between $25 and $30 million. He explained that volume could grow to over $40 million in 1973, with the new complex capable of handling $100 million in business annually.

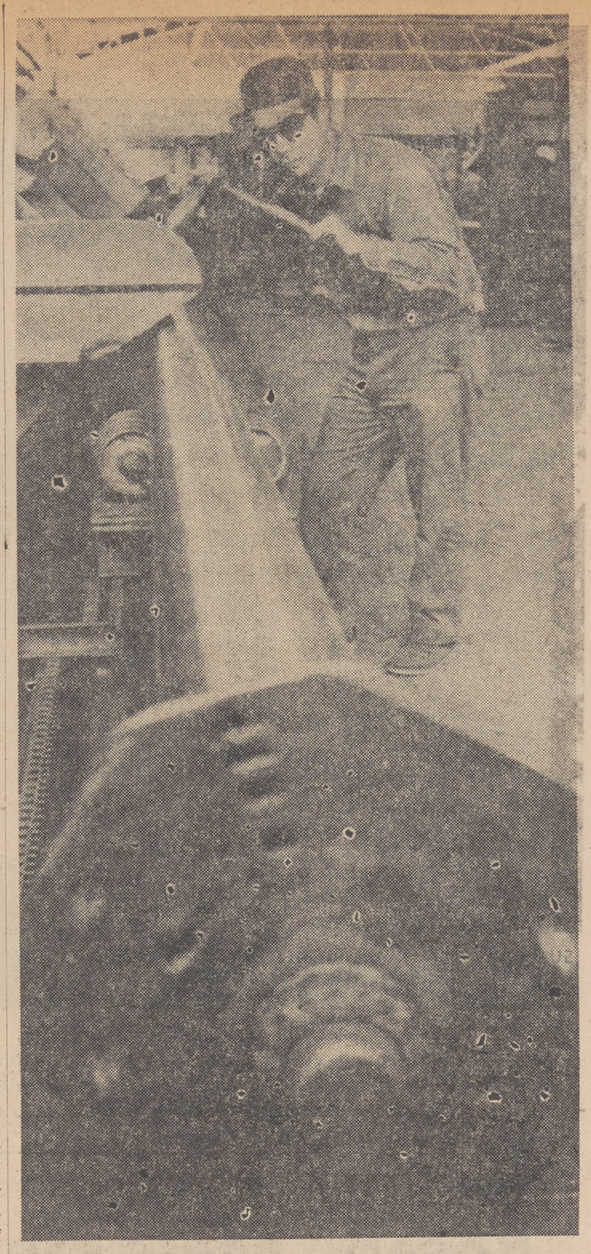
The firm's elevator lines are made for all types of structures, ranging from low-rise apartments to high-rise office buildings. It's elevators are marketed through 32 branch offices nationwide.

Several unique products have been developed by the company; among them is a fully computerized elevator control system that can substantially reduce the cost of an elevator system. They are working on a new plastic cab.

Three buildings make up the facility which is constructed on a twenty-acre site in Rancho San Diego. The main building, housing administrative and fabrication functions, is 200,000 square feet. Two annexes, each 25,000 square feet, are used for elevator cab production and for grinding huge hydraulic elevator rams.

U. S. Elevator's new plant also has a 120-foot test tower. Here, new cabs and controls are evaluated at speeds of 1,000 feet per minute. These high speed system are in keeping with the demand for today's and tomorrow's new skyscrapers, Breitwieser stated. Traveling at that velocity, an elevator could ascend the Eiffel Tower in Paris in less than one minute.

Founded in 1966, United States Elevator Corporation was acquired by Cubic Corporation in April 1969.



GRINDING — Precision grinding of elevator pistons, up to six stories in length, are machined at United States Elevator Corporation. These rams are used for low rise hydraulic elevators. The company, which is the largest elevator manufacturer based in the West, also produces a variety of elevators, including high speed units for skyscrapers. The new 250,000 sq. ft. complex in Spring Valley was formally dedicated at ctremonies Tuesday.

Medical Quacks Topic of Public Forum Series

The public forum series titled "Can You Keep From Killing Yourself," will continue at the Grossmont Hospital auditorium at 7:30 p.m. this evening, when Dr. Tom Lyons explains how "Medical Quacks Can Kill You."

Dr. Lyons has conducted a surgical practice in La Mesa since 1955 and has devoted extensive time and effort into investigation and exposure of medical quacks. A demonstration of a variety of "cure-all" machines confiscated by authorities, is scheduled. Dr. Lyons is a member of the San Diego Surgical Society, the American Board of Surgery and a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons.

The public is invited to this series of programs cosponsored by Grossmont Hospital, the Grossmont Hospital Women's auxiliary and the Office of Community Services, Grossmont College. The programs are offered as an incentive to maintain a healthy, active mental and physical balance that could prolong the life-span.

Local PTA Highlights

Palm Jr. High

The first meeting of the school year for the Palm Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association will be held next Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

On tap for the evening is open house following a short business meeting, according to PTA president Mrs. Arville Smith. Mrs. Smith also indicated that parents in attendance will follow their children's class schedule with abbreviated periods.

Parents will also get a chance to meet with school principal Hal Brogan at the open house, Mrs. Smith said.

Mt. Miguel

A meeting is scheduled for this evening at 7 p.m. in the Mount Miguel High School gymnasium for parents of Mt. Miguel students in grades 10 through 12, according to Mrs. Ronald Duncan, of the sponsoring PTSA.

In previous years, grade level meetings have been held separately, said Mrs. Duncan, but this year all parents will meet together then break into smaller groups for special programs.

The meeting will be of particular interest to parents of seniors, as a chairman is to be selected for the after-prom committee.

Refreshments will be served by the PTSA and counselors will be present to answer questions and discuss special programs.

San Miguel

The San Miguel Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association will hold a unit meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafetorium, according to Mrs. Evelyn F. Ciolfe, of the PTA.

A special program will be presented by a panel from Citizens United for Racial Equality. "Action in Caring" will be the topic for discussion.

Blood Bank Needs Volunteer Donors

The San Diego Blood Bank has initiated an intensified public awareness campaign aimed at attaining 100 per cent volunteer blood donors by the end of this year. The campaign will gain added impetus with the opening of the new community Blood Bank in mid-November.

In explanation of the Blood Bank's goal of attaining 100 per cent volunteer donors, it was noted that research has indicated that the blood of volunteer donors is approximately ten times safer than blood from paid donors. For this reason, there is a developing national consensus that all blood donors should be volunteers.

Meanwhile, the need for blood increases almost daily, requiring an ever-expanding group of donors. In San Diego alone, the requirement will increase from 50,000 pints in 1972 to 90,000 pints in 1980.

Train Trip Planned By Museum Association

B. V. Parks, Excursion Chairman for the Pacific Southwest Railway Museum Association, said the "Fiesta Special" will leave the border in Mexicali at 8:45 a.m. and will return in the evening. Bus connections to Mexicali are available from this area. The event is open to the public.

AARP-NRTA Publish Job Guide Information

A special booklet has been published by the National Retired Teachers Association and the American Association of Retired Persons which provides information on job opportunities for older workers.

The booklet, "Retirement Job Guide", is offered free as a public service to those retired persons who would like to earn up to $1,680 a year without losing Social Security benefits.

According to the booklet, about one third of workers over 65 have part time jobs, including many in the service areas which offer more opportunities than industrial and commercial employment.

The job guide also includes information on preparing a resume and job application procedures as well as a summary of job categories most often selected by older workers.

The booklet is available by writing to: Job Guide, AARP-NRTA, 1225 Connecticutt ave., N.W., Washington, D.C., 20036.

Matador Band Takes First At Fallbrook

Mt. Miguel High School's marching band earned a first place award in its final competition before trying for a sixth trip to the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade.

The 120-piece black and red clad Matador marchers tallied 93.4 of a possible 100 points in last Saturday's Fallbrook Festival Parade for a first place finish. Poway High School was second with 92.3 and El Capitan third with 92.0. Orange Glen took the sweepstakes title with 94.5 points.

Miguel's drill team, competing in a separate category, did not finish among the top three in its division.

Band director Dean Immel has less than two weeks to regroup his charges for the Oct. 22 Autumn Band Review to be held in the Fashion Valley Shopping Center. The winner of this competition will represent San Diego city and county in the Pasadena New Years' Day Parade and Mt. Miguel and Orange Glen are now considered the top two possibilities for the honor.

Mt. Miguel has won the trip on five previous occasions, more than any other area band.

SUPER TEAM — Grossmont College's cross country team, considered by most area coaches to be the best group of junior college runners in California and possibly in the nation, was busy showing its power last Friday in a double-dual meet with Southwestern and Saddleback at the Santee Lakes course. Coming across the finish line in the meet were Terry Cotton, left, Tom Lux, Ed Mendoza, Larry Stone, and Joe Stubbs, in that order, giving the Griffs the first five finishers. The local team beat Southwestern, 15-48, and Saddleback by the perfect score of 15-50. "Super Team's" next victims will be San Diego City College and Palomar College in another double-dual affair Saturday over the Balboa Park course.

Grossmont League Play

Eagles Dump 'Hillers, Helix Next In Line

By John Nicholson

The Granite Hills Eagles, with one more major hurdle to get by before becoming the overwhelming favorite to take the Grossmont League football title, moved a step in that direction by shutting out Grossmont, 14-0 last Friday night.

In other league-openers, Mt. Miguel blasted El Capitan, 41-18, Santana shut out Monte Vista, 20-0, and Helix nailed El Cajon Valley, 24-14.

In the Granite Hills-Grossmont affair, the Eagles relied on an excellent defensive effort and the solid passing arm of quarterback Joe Roth to hand the Foothillers their third straight loss, including two pre-season defeats.

Mt. Miguel, down 18-7 midway in the third quarter, came alive on an interception and three fumbles and scored 27 points in the last quarter to mash El Capitan. The Matadors, though lacking power runners of the caliber of last year's Tim Miller and Dan Rower, established a good rushing game and a fair passing attack, as well as a real threat to cop the loop title.

Santana, after losing two tough pre-season games, showed a tremendous defensive line in proving that Monte Vista is little more than a pain in the side without star quarterback Art Spahr. Spahr, who still leads the league in passing though sitting out Friday night, is expected to be back in action tomorrow night.

Helix won a game of penalties and running backs from El Cajon and at the same time established one of the league's best passing attacks under quarterback Jim French, who threw for 173 yards. Helix running back Sam Smith added 73 yards on the ground for the Scotties, which helped to offset 160 yards in penalties assessed against Helix.

Tomorrow night's action brings a showdown between the top two contenders for the league title when Granite Hills and Helix go at it in Valley Stadium.

The Eagles, winners of three straight, will take on the rapidly improving Highlanders. The contest will also feature a duel between Jim French and Joe Roth through the air and Sam Smith and Larry Downs on the ground.

In other action, Mt. Miguel will entertain Santana in what could be a battle of the league's top rushers and defensive lines, Monte Vista hosts El Capitan, and El Cajon clashes with Grossmont at Helix Stadium.

Mt. Miguel's huge defensive line and speedy secondary will match wits and brawn with Santana's tremendous pass rush, while Sultan quarterback Jim Rice and running back Arnold Fudge will try to undermine Mt. Miguel's triple-threat running attack of Tom Gallagher, Steve Haynes, and Ed Morris and the steady passing of Jess Jenner.

Monte Vista's improving defense will be out to stop El Capitan's Jon Woodward on the ground and the passing combination of Joe Unden and Warren Salas. Monarch quarterback Art Spahr, meanwhile, will be trying to pick apart a fair El Capitan secondary.

Grossmont, after scoring only one touchdown in three games, will be trying to score on El Cajon, while the rugged Foothiller defense will be trying to stop a good El Cajon rushing game.

Nick's Picks: Granite Hills, seven over Helix; Mt. Miguel 14 over Santana; Monte Vista six over El Capitan; Grossmont 18 over El Cajon. Last week: three right, one wrong.

Matadors Win, 41-18

Fourth Quarter Fumbles Disastrous For El Cap

By Doug Gegax

With the help of a big fourth quarter, the Mt. Miguel gridders blasted the El Cajon Vaqueros 41-18 last Friday night at El Cap.

After taking the opening kickoff, the Matadors couldn't score and turned the ball over to El Capitan. With sound running and fine passing from Vaq quarterback Joe Unden, El Cap scored with a 31-yard off tackle play. Jon Woodward, who carried it in, went untouched on the play.

Shortly, with the help of three offside penalties, Steve Haynes scored for Mt. Miguel on a 17-yard run before the quarter ended.

In the second period Dan Huff recovered a Vaquero fumble but the Mats failed to score when Vaq Gary Armstrong picked off a Jess Jenner pass. Starting from Miguel's 34-yard line, Unden began to pick apart the Matadors' secondary and found Warren Salas wide open in the end zone from 21 yards out, ending the first half scoring.

Early in the third quarter, Unden's arm continued to produce, but it was Woodward who ran in from 27 yards out, making the score 18-7. Before the period could end, however, Ed Morris capped a Miguel 40-yard drive when he scored from one-yard out to make it 18-14.

That Matador drive seemed to light a fire under the local team as the final quarter opened. Rick Pacheco started things rolling by picking off an Unden aerial on the Vaquero 20-yard line. Moments later, Morris plunged in from the two-yard stripe to give Mt. Miguel the lead, 21-18.

On the ensuing kick-off, El Capitan took over again, but lost the ball after one scrimmage when Chris Palazzo recovered a fumble deep in Vaquero territory. Jenner hit Tom Gallagher with a 14-yard pass for the six-pointer.

Almost as though the game were being televised and the next kickoff was an instant replay, Mt. Miguel's Mike Cormier pounced on another El Cap fumble, giving Mt. Miguel possession deep in El Cap real estate.

Four plays later, Gallagher ran it in from ten yards out to make it 34-18.

Another kick-off, another El Cap fumble, this time recovered by Jenner, and Mt. Miguel was knocking on the door again. Steve Haynes completed the game's scoring on a near-perfect trap play from 22 yards out.

Statistically speaking, El Capitan was a good match for the Matadors, piling up 308 total yards, compared with Mt. Miguel's 273 yards. The big difference was in tournovers, as the Matadors cashed in three fumbles and an interception for four of their six touchdowns.

Four Way Tie In Loop Harrier Chase

After the opening week of the Grossmont League cross country season, four teams are tied for first place, each with 1-0 records. Next week, there will probably be three teams tied for the top spot.

In last Friday's action, Grossmont shocked Granite Hills, 25-41, Monte Vista blitzed Santana, 15-45, Helix shattered El Cajon, 17-41, and Mt. Miguel knocked off an improving El Capitan team, 26-30.

Tomorrow's meets will see favored El Cajon at Grossmont, El Capitan at Monte Vista, favored Helix at Granite Hills, and Santana at Mt. Miguel.

Monte Vista is the league's best, Helix is rated second, followed by Mt. Miguel, El Capitan, El Cajon, Santana, Grossmont and Granite Hills.

Mike Garrett To Lead Chargers Against Miami Dolphins Sunday

I like Mike. That is the 1972 campaign slogan for the San Diego Chargers and their high-flying little running back Mike Garrett.

On top of the American Conference in rushing, Garrett leads the Chargers (2-1-1) into the Orange Bowl Sunday to face pro football's only unbeaten team, the Miami Dolphins (4-0).

A sellout crowd of 80,000 hanky-wavers is anticipated for the game to begin at 10 a.m. (PDT). It will be televised in San Diego by KCST-39 with Jerry Gross and Mike Smith the announcers. Stu Nahan and Ralph Lawler broadcast for KDEO and the Charger network.

Chapter Three in the "Adventures of Harland's Hobos," the current four-game Charger road show, will have to be high in melodrama to rival the thrills of the first episodes — 17-17 at Oakland and 23-20 at Baltimore last Sunday.

The Chargers rallied for 13 points in the final quarter to defeat the Colts on a last second field goal of 28 yards by Dennis Partee. Two minutes before Partee had tied the score on a 40-yard field goal. In the second quarter he connected on a club record 51-yard kick.

But only Partee could share the spotlight with a superb performance by Garrett. The littlest Charger ran for 132 yards through the respected Colts' defense for a 4.8 average and two touchdowns. He leads the AFC in rushing with 388 yards on 96 carries for a 4.0 average and three touchdowns.

Garrett carried the ball 27 times against Baltimore. He had a club-record 29 runs against Oakland. That is just the way the 5-9, 191-pound seven-year veteran likes to play the game.

"The more times I carry, the more I get the feel of the game and the more I enjoy it," he explained.

Garrett credits his success to San Diego's offensive line of tackles Russ Washington and Terry Owens, guards Walt Sweeney and Doug Wilkerson, center Carl Mauck and tight ends Pettis Norman and John Mackey.

"I'm getting super help," said the former Heisman Trophy winner from USC. "I wouldn't trade our guys in the line for anybody. They're my kind of people. Besides John Hadl is sweet, too."

Quarterback Hadl agrees with Garrett on the caliber of the offensive line. They're great and so is Mike. He's got it all, the quick feet, balance, intelligence and what a competitor!"

Coach Harland Svare said Garret "is quick, very quick. He thrives on work. He is doing a fine job for the team."

Svare and the Chargers will need all their weapons sharpened Sunday against Coach Don Shula's Miami wonder team. The Dolphins have beaten the Chiefs at Kansas City, 20-10; the Houston Oilers, 34-13; the Vikings at Minnesota, 16-14, and the Jets at New York, 27-17, last Sunday.

To prepare for Bob Griese, Paul Warfield, Larry Czonka and the Dolphins' notorious "No-Name" defense, the Chargers are working out at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., this week. On their last visit to Miami in 1969, they beat the Dolphins, 21-14. San Diego leads the series, 4-1.

Hockey Season Opener Pits Gulls-Hawks

The San Diego Gulls open the 1972-73 Western Hockey League season on Saturday, when the Dallas Black Hawks invade the San Diego Sports Arena. Game time is set for 8 p.m.

The game is the Gulls home opener and it will also be Wild Bunch Poster Night. All youngsters 14 years of age and under will receive free a 23" by 29" poster featuring the Wild Bunch.

The Black Hawks are the first Central League team to meet the Gulls in the new interlocking schedule between the CHL and the WHL. San Diego will play twice on the Central League ice and the four teams of that league will play in San Diego two times.

Dallas is a farm team of the Chicago Black Hawks and were the champions of the Central League last season. This year they are picked to be in the running again. Their roster will be changing many times throughout the season because they are a development club but several players are expected to return from last year's team. They include veteran right wing Dan Gordon (16 goals), forwards Dave Kryksow (9 goals) and Dan Spring (10 goals). Defensemen will include Mike Baumgartner, Roger Wilson and Len Frig.

Following the home opener, the Gulls will have five off days before returning to action on the road against the Denver Spurs on Friday, October 20. The following evening the Gulls return to San Diego to battle the Omaha Knights and on Sunday, October 22 the locals will close out a three game weekend series with the Roadrunners in Phoenix.

Season tickets are still available at the Arena.

Toreros (2-2) Meet LaVerne (2-1) Sat.

Making the necessary adjustments is often the key to winning football and University of San Diego coach Andy Vinci gets a real test Saturday night when his Toreros host LaVerne College. Game time is 7:30 p.m. in the USD campus stadium.

The Toreros are in their first college division season since 1961 and have surprised many observers with two victories in their first four games. Their latest outing was a 29-16 defeat at the hands of Cal State Los Angeles.

Against LaVerne, Vinci will have to piece together a pass defense which was riddled for 343 yards by CSLA. His task is compounded by a lack of depth on a 39-man roster and the loss of standout middle linebacker Mike Wagner for about two weeks because of a dislocated elbow.

LaVerne comes to town with two straight wins after an opening loss to Whittier. The Leopards edged past United States International University 12-10 and blanked Azusa Pacific 10-0.

M.V. Harriers Whip Sultans

The Monte Vista cross country team Friday hosted the Santana Sultans over the 2.1 mile Monarch course and whipped the Sults, 15-49.

Leading the way for Monte Vista were Gary Close and Mike McGrath, who took the finish line together a few seconds ahead of third place finisher Tom Wendt.

In fourth place for Monte Vista was Dan Wendt, followed by Ron Jermyn in fifth and John Sinclair in sixth.

Tim Hughes, who ordinarily is Monte Vista's fifth man, sat the meet out with an injury, so the Monarchs ran with only six men.

The local team's jayvee squad took the Sultan jayvee by the same score, led by Tim Matheny.

The next stop on the road to Monte Vista's league title is a meet tomorrow afternoon with El Capitan on the Monarch course at 3:30 p.m. Monte Vista's league record is now 1-0 and the overall record is 3-0.

Ring Double-Header Is Friday Feature At S.D. Coliseum

A welterweight double-header Friday at the Coliseum, bids fair to help bring popularity back to the local boxing scene.

The fights, which start at 8:30 and are to be broadcast via KOGO radio with Al Couppee at the mike, features Hedgemon Lewis and Quincy Daniels — both of whom have become popular following appearances here.

Lewis will meet Jose Luis Baltazar of Mexico. Lewis has a 41-4 record; Baltazar is 21-16.

In the second "main go" Quincy Daniels, a dandy left winger meets Jorge Rodriguez. Daniels KO'd Arturo Lomeli in 43 seconds of the first round last time out here. His record is 12-1 and Rodriguez is 20-6.

The Coliseum is at 15th and E streets. Good seats are still available.

The whooping crane population got so low that in 1937 there were only 14.

Morgan Assails Sups

National City Mayor Kile Morgan, a candidate for the County Board of Supervisors from the First District, has charged the board with acting unethically, if not illegally, by leasing a new welfare office in Mission Valley.

Morgan said that the most expensive property in San Diego is in Mission Valley and claimed that acceptance of a lease without permitting open bidding verges on being illegal.

Hitt Passes McIntyre For Point Race Lead

Defending ECSCRA Super-Stock Car champion Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove will be hunting for his fifth feature win of the season, Saturday night at the South Bay Speedway, when he faces a sixty car field in the night's eight event program. He won the main event last week.

Hitt has been on a hot streak of late, winning four of the last six Super-Stock Car main events on the 1/2 mile clay oval in his potent Chevrolet Nova. He also has four second place finishes this year.

Out to stop his winning record will be five time main event winner Pat McIntyre of Spring Valley, who lost the point lead last Saturday night when he was forced out of the feature. He has only two races left in which to regain the number one position.

McIntyre holds the super-stock one lap track record of 26.95 and has been the fastest qualifier the past four Saturday nights in a row.

Other former main event winners entered Saturday night are, Tex Kimbrell of Imperial Beach; Tom Zelesky of El Cajon; Wes Osborn and Mark Stahl of Chula Vista and George Behlman of Lemon Grove. Behlman was third in the feature race last week.

An extra added attraction on Saturday night will be the 15-lap Powder Puff Grand Prix for women drivers. The lady leadfoots will end up their season with a 15-lap feature, plus a trophy dash.

Don't let the first name fool you. Sammy Cartwright, a Spring Valley racer will attempt to garner honors from four other women drivers.

Gates open at 6 p.m. when 4,500 general admission seats go on sale at $2.50 for adults, $2 for servicemen and students, $1.25 for juniors 13-16; 50 cents for kids 8-12. Children under 8 are free, as is paved parking.

Soccer Play Begins

Action got underway last weekend for youngsters in the Suburban Soccer League, as all teams in the Pee Wee and Midget Divisions played.

In the Pee Wee class, the Celtic and Razorbacks tied, 3-3, the Rigs topped the Hawks, 4-0, the Continentals nipped the Rangers, 2-1, the Roadrunners outran the Royals, 6-0, and the Raiders beat the Lions, 1-0.

Midget action saw the Rascals beat the Rippers, 2-1, the Pros crush the Chargers, 5-1, the Conquistadors blank the Monarchs, 5-0, the Playboys edge the Braves, 2-1, and the Colts clobber the Marauders, 9-0.

It is estimated that 97 percent of all Russians vote on election day.

Bloom Wins CRAC Post

Harley F. Bloom, Recorder of San Diego County, was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the County Recorders' Association of California at the annual meeting of the 58 member counties at Clear Lake. Bloom has been chairman of the Southern District of the Association and will continue to serve on the board of directors. The organization will hold its next annual meeting at Newport Beach.

MORE YARDAGE — Santana punt returner Sam Cadilla put his head down and bulls his way for a few extra yards in last Friday night's game against Monte Vista on the Monarchs' field. Mark Maley makes the stop on Cadilla for Monte Vista, while Sultan blocker Mark Mysak comes up to give assistance to Cadilla. Monte Vista, without star quarterback Art Spahr, who was out with a leg injury, was beaten, 20-0.

Woman's Club To Host Party For Servicemen

For the first time in the many years that the Lemon Grove Woman's Club has provided refreshments for the Armed Forces at the YMCA, the club will provide hostesses for a Halloween party October 27.

Mrs. William Sayward is in charge of arrangements being made to provide relishes, dips, sandwiches and other light refreshments, in a joint effort by the Vogue Evening Section, of which she is a member, and the general membership, to introduce young servicemen to the recreational facilities of the Armed Forces Y, during their free time in the San Diego area.

On the same day at 1:30 p.m., a food sale will be held in the Lemon Grove Woman's Clubhouse, 2810 Main st., Lemon Grove.

Mrs. D. D. Lairsey is chairman for the sale, and tea hostesses are Mmes. Robert Davis and Parker C. Emerson. The program, to be presented by Mrs. Rex Wells, is "Marge's Madcap Mothers".

Art Spahr-less Monarchs Lose To Santana

The Monte Vista Monarchs tried to go it without ace quarterback Art Spahr last Friday night, but the local grid team fell on its face, 20-0, while entertaining the surprising Santana Sultans.

Santana featured a fine defense, while the pass-oriented Monarchs also did a good job. The Sultans scored in the second quarter on a 54-yard run by quarterback Jim Rice, and twice in the third quarter on a fumble recovery in the end zone and a 50-yard run by Arnold Fudge.

Meanwhile, the Monarchs were trying to figure out how to run the ball while Spahr, the league's leading passer, sat out the contest. The Monarchs never did quite figure out how to run, and had to settle for minus six yards rushing.

Jim Carroll, subbing for Spahr, did manage to connect for 70 yards through the air, but without a running game, it was difficult for the Monarchs to keep the Sultan secondary honest.

Monte Vista will get another chance at getting into the win column tomorrow night when the Monarchs entertain El Capitan. Kickoff is at 8 p.m.

Ellen Browning Scripps Day Planned by SD Zoo

A new "mini" sea lion show and picture-taking sessions with Carol, the painting elephant, will highlight the San Diego Zoo's celebration of Ellen Browning Scripps Day October 15.

The Zoo annually celebrates the occasion by admitting all children under 16 free to the Children's Zoo on the Sunday closest to Miss Scripp's birthday, which is October 18.

Children under 16 are admitted free daily at the main gate, but they ordinarily are charged for entrance to the Children's Zoo.

There will be a special schedule of animal shows and events throughout the day on Sunday. In addition to the free trained sea lion shows in Wegeforth Bowl, "mini" sea lion shows will be presented at Clark Theater in the Children's Zoo at 1 and 3 p.m.

Designed especially for a young audience, the Children's Zoo shows will combine tricks by Nipper the sea lion with background information about these aquatic animals, their natural habitat, and how they are trained. After the demonstration, children will be welcomed to pet Nipper.

"Miss Zoofari," Joan Embery, and Carol elephant will appear on the stage of Wegeforth Bowl at noon and 3 p.m., and be available after the shows to give visitors the opportunity to take a picture of themselves with the world's only painting elephant.

Miss Scripps, in whose honor the day is annually observed, was born in 1836, lived most of her life in La Jolla and died there in 1932. She supported many cultural and charitable causes in San Diego, and the Zoo was one of her favorites.

The large walk-through cage containing shore and wading birds, the Zoo hospital, and several animal enclosures were her gifts to the San Diego Zoo. The Ellen Browning Scripps Foundation also has sponsored annual grants-in-aid for researchers at the Zoo hospital, and has recently donated funds that made possible the gorilla grotto at the San Diego Wild Animal Park.

'Museum Without Walls' Series Ends October 16

The popular series, "Museum Without Walls" presented by Grossmont College's Office of Community Services at Cinema Grossmont, will close on October 16 when "The Cubist Epoch" and a film on the Dadaist movement is screened at 11 a.m.

"The Cubist Epoch" details the short but fascinating evolution of Cubism as visualized in art by masters like Picasso, Braque and Gris. "The Cubist Epoch" is based on the famous Cubist exhibition, a comprehensive survey of Cubist art in the context of its period originally shown at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York and the Los Angeles County Art Museum. The film was supervised by the internationally known art historian, Douglas Cooper, who recently authored a book on the subject.

A film designed in the true Dadist spirit, "Germany - Dada," covers the phenomenon of Dada art and includes photography of the leaders of the movement, records of the music and Dada poetry. Hans Richter and other leaders appear as cameo narrators.

Although Dadaism had faded as a movement by 1923, the scope of the activities permeated future thought and today has overtones in the contemporary revolutionary movements around the world. The movement, as illustrated in the film, affected even architecture, typography, advertising and the theatre. "Germany - Dada" shows for the first-time release to the public at large, actual footage made by Hans Richter and Viktor Eggeling, early leaders in Germany of the anti-establishment movement.

The public is invited to see the art films featuring two controversial, but influential, art movements. There is no charge for admission.

The class, "Organic Gardening", is taught by Paul F. Canady, Sr., who for over 50 years has been involved in organic and landscape gardening.

The class centers around a large plot of land adjacent to the college, and there's still plenty of acreage to accommodate more students, Canady said.

SV Girl Beaten After Kidnapping

A 14-year old Spring Valley girl whose name was not released reported Tuesday that she was kidnapped by three teenagers, taken to a ravine in San Diego and beaten.

The victim, who told deputies she was walking home from Mt. Miguel High School at about noon, said the three teens, all females, called out her name and asked if that was she.

When she replied in the affirmative, she reported, one of the three displayed a knife and told her that she was going for a ride.

She added that she lost consciousness during the attack and that when she awoke, walked to a nearby house and called the Sheriff's Department. The victim was not hospitalized.

80 Days to Friday the 13th For Bloom's ConHoopsters

It's Friday, the 13th, and the 80-day miracle is about to unfold.

On July 24, Dr. Leonard A. Bloom was busily engaged in his San Diego orthodontistry practice and, like most San Diegans, awaited to see which of two local groups bidding for an ABA franchise would be successful.

Alex Groza was preparing for his sixth ABA season with the Kentucky Colonels while Bill Antonini and Ross Paul were both back in the lush Blue Grass state along with 6.3 guard Henry Bacon.

K. C. Jones was still counting his NBA championship money from the Lakers, and Stan Albeck planning another season with the Denver Rockets.

Larry Miller and Stew Johnson were prepping for the upcoming season with the Carolina Cougars in Greensboro and so was Ans Dilley. Ollie Taylor and Gene Moore, along with Steve Carlson, were swinging down New York City's East Side. Craig Raymond and Jerry Chambers were smog bound in Los Angeles while Simmie Hill (in Dallas) and Chuck Williams (in Denver) were oblivious to the changes which were about to take place.

Then is happened like a bombshell! Both San Diego bidders were turned down and Bloom rushed east to save pro basketball for San Diegans.

In the remarkable short period of nine days, he amassed a dozen front office people and another dozen players to carry the Q's colors. A temporary arena was located (Peterson Gym on State campus) and plans were announced for a new 20,000 seat arena for next season. Uniforms were ordered, and $40,000 worth of program ads were sold in the remarkable period of ten days.

The 30-day miracle is to unfold Friday. A dozen players, only a few of whom had ever played together before, have been hurriedly blended together by K. C. Jones and Stan Albeck to launch the Conquistadors into pro sports history.

Movie, Tennis Stars To Mark SD Country Estate Opening

A celebrity tennis doubles match, teaming movie stars Charlton Heston and Doug McClure with tennis pro Tony Trabert and UCLA's top tennis ace Jeff Austin, will highlight the grand opening, Sunday, of the San Vicente Country Club at San Diego Country Estates.

The festivities will get under way at noon when Carol Marie Herrema, the reigning Miss California, will join noted Southland builder-developer Ray A. Watt, co-developer Bill Watt and civic dignitaries in a unique ribbon-breaking ceremony in the entranceway of the clubhouse. Miss Herrema will 'drive' a giant golf ball through the doorway of the clubhouse, breaking the ribbon.

San Diego Country Estates is a new $24,000,000 resort-residential community being developed by the R. A. Watt Companies in the scenic and secluded San Vicente Valley, 38 miles northeast of San Diego, near Ramona.

In addition to the celebrity tennis match which begins at 1:00, a special putting and driving exhibition will be presented by Al Geiberger, San Vicente Country Club's director of golf and touring pro, and the club's golf pro, Chuck Jones. The exhibition will take place on a mock nine-hole course on the practice green in front of the clubhouse.

Music and entertainment will continue throughout the afternoon until 5 p.m., with radio and TV personality Ernie Meyers of KOGO, acting as master of ceremonies for the event.

The official opening of San Diego Country Estates was celebrated a little more than one month ago, and since then, teotal sales are close to $3,000,000, according to Donal MacAdam, president of American Land Systems Company, marketing agent for the new community.

Traffic Rules Q's and A's

Each week a series of questions and answers will be published in these columns. Readers are urged to call or write in questions to which they want an official answer. Answer seekers need not identify themselves. Address "Traffic" P.O. Box 127, Lemon Grove, CA 92045 or call 469-0101.

The CHP Accident Reduction Team (ART) now operating in the Lemon Grove area is answering another set of questions that seem to confuse motorists.

They also announced upcoming developments concerning highway safety.

First the questions:

May I pass a stopped school bus?

You may if the bus has no red lights flashing. If the bus is stopped and there are no red lights flashing it is permissible to pass. The lights indicate scholars are crossing the thoroughfare and traffic must halt.

Often radio warns that traffic is slow in traffic lanes one, two or three. Which is which?

The fastest lane — the left one — is "one." "Two is to the right of that one and so forth.

Who has the right of way when two vehicles reach an intersection at right angles — the intersection having no stop signs or traffic signals?

The vehicle on your right has the right of way.

CHP Officer Bill Parsley, in charge of the Lemon Grove ART team said this week that the first day in El Cajon "court" for rule-breaking bicyclists will be November 4. Bike school starts at Mt. Miguel high school December 2. Pasley said parents with bike sized youngsters should be urged to attend at least one of the classes. "It is a good precaution against traffic injury," he said.

Rainy Day Escort

Another development is the "Rainy Day Escort" planned on State 94 and elsewhere in the county. A CHP vehicle, with high beams on, will travel the lane nearest the middle. The idea will be for drivers to note his speed as the "safe driving speed for the conditions". Drivers need not stay behind the CHP vehicle.

Said Pasley, "We hope to guide traffic at a speed that averts traffic accident pile-ups."

Aztecs Hand 23-12 Defeat to SJS; Head for Houston's Great Indoors

Some called it Montezuma's Revenge.

But the Aztec warriors lost some killer skill as the fray grew late. Revenge was involved because of the abuse SJS perpetrated on the Aztecs last year — 45-7.

But the men of Montezuma Heights prevailed against the Spartans 23-12 for a 4-0 record before 35,030 fans Saturday at the Stadium.

Sportswriters were generous regarding flip quarterbacks Bill Donkers and Jesse Freitas. None seemed to want to note the grace and efficiency of Isaac Curtis. If there is to be a receiver who can make San Diego forget Lance Alworth, Curtis is the most likely. His Bambi-like efforts pulled down seven passes.

So it's off to the great indoors of Texas Saturday for San Diego State University's football team as the Aztecs meet the University of Houston in the Astrodome.

The game will be the first meeting ever between the two schools and San Diego State's first ever against a team from the Southwest Conference. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. CDT.

Houston ran into a hot passer in Virginia Tech's Dan Strock last week and had to scramble for a 27-27 tie to run its record to 1-2-1.

Quarterback Bill Donkers of San Diego State passed for 192 yards (12-19) and ran for 32 more against San Jose and was named the PCAA Offensive Player of the Week. Donckers a senior from Renton, Washington hit on 10 of 12 passe in the first half for 167 yards and two TD's and ran 36 yards for another Aztec score.

The Aztecs luckily led the Spartans 23-0 in the fourth quarter. If some of the Spartan effort had been shown earlier, the Aztecs might have had an evening of embarrassment.

Daily Deaths From Fire Average 33 in America

Fire peril killed some 33 Americans on a daily average last year and devoured $2,245,835, in property, not counting forest fires and government property.

These figures indicate that fire is one of the single largest threats to man and should be of vital concern to everyone, according to the Insurance Information Institute.

To reduce the fire menace, all persons are urged to eliminate potential fire hazards, especially in the home.

The I.I.I. suggests the following:

Have heating equipment checked and cleaned by qualified servicemen; Keep stoves free of grease and located away from towels and curtains; Clear away clutter wherever it may build up; Check electrical wiring and appliances for defects; Observe careful smoking habits; Check location of matches; Maintain constant vigilance toward hazards developing; Equip fireplaces with a sturdy metal screen.

In the event that fire does break out, an escape plan could be crucial to the survival of the family.

An escape procedure should include a warning the entire family could use, such as pounding on walls or striking pans, and alternate routes for escape, especially from bedrooms.

Other escape tips include using the quickest route, and door testing to determine whether or not the room on the other side is burning. If a door is hot, it should not be opened, as poisonous fumes could enter.

Finally, the family should gather at an outside meeting place, where a check can be made to be sure everyone is safe.

In keeping with Fire Prevention Week, which is this week, the Lemon Grove Fire Department is holding an open house Saturday which will include a tour of the facilities, free refreshments provided by the Lemon Grove Woman's Club Vogue Section, and movies on fire safety.

Additionally at the open house, the Woman's Club will give kitchen fire extinguishers to all ladies who attend, while the supply lasts.

Back-East Sandwiches Featured

Earl Plante, a Michigan restaurateur, has opened a "back East"-style delicatessen sandwich shop on the lower concourse of College Grove shopping center.

The shop, Sandwich Isle, features corned beef sandwiches on hard or onion rolls with generous portions of meat, Plante said.

Counselors Join Youth Center Field Trip To Be Scheduled

Some unexpected help came to the Lemon Grove Youth Center this week.

The aid came in the form of counselors — four of them from three different operations. All are counseling students at State College.

Marc Gunbiner and Sylvia Nivari counsel at Palm Junior High. Scott Cole counsels at Golden Avenue school. Then a double-threat counselor appeared on the scene. He is also a student counselor at State but he has a van.

Dale Wood, Center director, said "that's what we needed. A van! Now we can take field trips. My pickup truck and Tom's van will carry all the youngsters who want to go."

A local resident gave the Center a box of material to make plastic items. That, and any "things-to-do" materials are needed.

The proposed service of delivering circulars to Lemon Grove homes has not been productive so far. One local firm has promised a circular delivery job but that hasn't materialized yet.

A subscription project in which the Center is given 50 cents for every new subscription obtained by newspaper solicitors goes on. Those who said they would take part this week are:

From Lemon Grove:
Lyle McClanahan, Bass
Nobuo Kawamoto, Glebe rd.
W. B. McDaniel, Central
Paul McGuffie, Buena Vista
Mrs. Ann McGahee, London lane
Harold McDermott, Carancho

District Denies Subdivision OK

the November ballot, accepted a report on school advisory committees, and awarded a contract for the construction of a $21,934 warehouse.

In opposition to proposition 14, the so-called Watson amendment, trustees indicated that the measure would present a major threat to the school program in Lemon Grove and would cause the district to make cutbacks, including the number of teachers, thereby increasing class sizes.

In a resolution passed by the board, it was noted that the state school system would lose about $791 million, if the measure is approved by voters.

Dr. James Justeson, assistant superintendent for educational services, presented a list of the names of local citizens to serve as advisory groups to each of the district schools.

Justeson indicated that the work of the committees, which includes setting goals for the schools, will be completed by January 19, 1973.

At the last meeting of the board, action was delayed on awarding the contract for the district's new warehouse so that the district administration could study the financial position of the district further.

At Tuesday's meeting, the administration recommended that the contract be awarded to the low bidder, Fiedler Construction Company. Trustees approved the move.

'Picnic' Is SWC's First Play of Year

"Picnic", the Pulitizer Prize winning play by William Inge is the first major production by the Southwestern College drama department this season.

The play will run through Saturday, in the college's Mayan Hall, and will be repeated October 18-21. Curtain time is 8 p.m. for all performances.

The play set in the 1950's, is still relevant to small town life in the 70's. The action centers around two middle-aged women, both long deserted by their husbands.

One has an invalid mother and the other, two maturing daughters and a boarder who is a spinster school teacher. Into the congested female atmosphere comes a young man, Hal Carter, whose animal vitality seriously upsets the entire group. The play depicts the inner desires and reactions of each of the young women in their relationship with Hal.

Wives' Luncheon Set

The annual Cruiser-Destroyer Force, U. S. Pacific Fleet Officer's Wives Luncheon is to be held Nov. 8 in the Skyline Room of the Admiral Kidd Club. Cocktails will be served at 11:30 a.m. and luncheon at 12:15 p.m.

FIESTA TIME — Bea Higgins, Community Aide with the Lemon Grove Library, and Laura Aldredge, coordinator of the county library's Mexican Relations Program, go over plans for the Lemon Grove Library's celebration of "El Dia de la Raza", which is Spanish for "The Day of the People", a holiday celebrated throughout the Spanish-speaking world. Miss Higgins handles the Mexican Relations program for Lemon Grove. Other libraries with similar programs are in Imperial Beach and Encinitas. The celebration at the local library will be Saturday and will include a speaker from the Chicago Cultural Center, a flamenco guitarist, a Chicano art exhibit, and Mexican singing and dancing. The event is open to the public.

Emergency Systems Conference Planned at Community Concourse

San Diego County, cited by presidential health advisor Dr. James Cavanaugh as an outstanding emergency services system model for the free world, has been selected as the site for a unique emergency medical care conference October 18.

North Atlantic Treaty Organization ministers will be joined by federal, state and local officials at the conference to be held in the Golden Room of the Community Concourse from 9 a.m. to noon.

The public will have an opportunity to share in the experience by attending a special open house at the concourse from noon to 9 p.m.

Featured at the open house will be exhibits, displays and demonstrations presented by providers of emergency medical care which portray the entire range of services available. Each component service will be presented as it relates to the rest of the system.

The Golden Room will be organized to suggest the interrelationships of provider agencies, with a central display representing system organization and coordination.

Over 40 separate displays are planned for the NATO program. Included will be displays and demonstrations of such specialized services as emergency transport via "air ambulance", cardiopulmonary resuscitation, mountain rescue techniques, simulated hospital emergency room "intensive care" units, en route treatment facilities for critically ill infants, and extrication methods utilized for removing injured victims "pinned in" by damaged automobiles.

Participants in the conference will range from those engaged in public safety and health maintenance programs through hospitalization and medical research. For those attending the afternoon and evening session, special emphasis will be placed on providing information regarding self-help, first aid, and how to go about seeking appropriate emergency medical assistance.

There will be no admission charged for attending the open house.

Noted Clarinetist Mitchell Lurie Next In Music Lecture Series

The second of six lectures on "The Classic Era of Music" will be November 17 in Room 221 of the Fine Arts building at Grossmont College and will feature noted clarinetist Mitchell Lurie.

The lecture-workshop series, sponsored by the college's Department of Music, opened October 6 with pianist Daniel Pollack, who discussed "Piano Literature".

Clarinetist Lurie, who began his distinguished career at the age of sixteen when he played the Mozart A Major Concerto with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, will discuss "Chamber Music for Woodwinds".

Lurie's career includes positions as principal clarinetist for the Pittsburg Symphony Orchestra, principal clarinetist for the Chicago Symphony, Professor of Woodwinds at the University of Southern California, and head of the woodwind department at the Music Academy of the West in Santa Barbara.

His chamber music appearances include concerts with the Budapest Quartet and the Casals Festivals.

Next in the series will be foremost musicologist Karl Geiringer, who will lecture on "Symphony" December 1. Geiringer, who studied musiocology at the University of Vienna and the University of Berlin, learned from such masters as Guido Adler, Wilhelm Fischer and Johannes Wolf.

He has taught at Boston University, Harvard, USC, and the University of California at Berkeley and Santa Barbara, and is the author of many books and articles, including some works that have been published in eleven languages. In 1969, Geiringer received the coveted Cross of Honor, First Class, from the Australian Government for achievements in arts and science.

The fourth program in the series will be that of George Skapski, who will talk about "Sonata Form" February 23.

Skapski, who is professor of music at California State University at Northridge, and has directed oratorios, chamber operas, and choral festivals.

He has taught at San Francisco College for Women, the University of San Francisco, Southern Mississippi, Boston University, and the University of California at Santa Barbara.

Skapski, like Geiringer, is active in the American Musicology Society and the author of numerous publications.

Rutkowski, who took up musical studies at the age of eight and made his concert debut at 13, studied at the University of Southern California and the Julliard School of Music, and with master Pablo Casals.

While continuing a fine career with numerous concerts, Rutkowski is now a member of the artist faculty at the University of California at Santa Barbara.

Popper, who is also Director of Opera at UCLA, has been a guest professor at the University of California campuses at Berkeley, Irvine, Santa Cruz, and Riverside.

He is presently active in public lecture work and has been a guest conductor of opera in the Orient as well as in Europe. He has produced a series of television shows for educational TV channels titled "Spotlight on Opera".

The lecture-workshops are held from 1 to 4 p.m. in Room 221 in the Fine Arts Building. Admission is free and open to the public.

Teevee Studio in Home

Cartridge Television Introduced Here

A home model television recording system that fits into a living room television set was unveiled last week by Sears, Roebuck at a press showing.

Today, they are being installed in San Diego homes.

The whole outfit sells for $1,600. The price includes a conventional 25-inch color television set which also houses a teevee cartridge system. And the cartridge system is what the excitement is all about.

Cartridges permit showing of pre-recorded programs or feature films in full color.

It records teevee programs in color with the teevee set on for viewing or not. It even records selected programs hours away whether there is anyone at home or not. They are then ready for viewing immediately.

A simple video camera permits picture taking, in black and white indoors or out. The cartridge is ready to show on the television screen immediately. No photo developing is involved. Pictures are permanent, but can be erased by re-recording. Cartridges sell for $37 for 100 minutes. A library of movies available on a rental basis of $13-$40. Rental tapes cannot be re-wound for re-playing.

According to W. C. Lochmoeller, Sears general manager in San Diego, Sears technicians have completed factory repair training in Chicago and local service is provided. M.G.

Admiral Moorer Scheduled For Gala Friday

Admiral Thomas H. Moorer, former Chief of Naval Operations and Chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff since July 1970, will address a Navy Day audience tomorrow as a highlight to a week-long program of local activities paying tribute to the nation's sea forces on its 197th anniversary.

The nation's ranking military officer will be Reviewing Officer at the Naval Training Center's Recruit Brigade Review in the afternoon.

Sponsored by the San Diego Navy League Council, the San Diego County Women's Council and the North County Council, a special Navy Day program will be held Friday evening at the Town and Country Convention Center, Mission Valley.

Admiral Moorer will address his dinner audience on the topic of "National Security in the 70s", covering strategic values assigned to U. S. military objectives in this decade.

Jack Morse, president of the San Diego Council, said a Navy "Fair" to include static displays of helicopters, research vehicles and open house visiting will be conducted at the Embarcadero Pier commencing at 1:15 p.m. A Navy band concert will open the two-day schedule of activities at that location.

Insulation Standards Sought by Committee

Adoption of strong regulations requiring the thermal insulation of all new residential construction throughout San Diego County is being sought by a newly-formed government and industry committee as a means of helping ease the energy crisis.

The committee was formed at a recent seminar sponsored by San Diego Gas & Electric Company to discuss the energy crisis and problems related to adopting uniform insulation requirements for all new buildings.

Committee members include representatives of San Diego County, eight cities, building constractors, the Bureau of Home Appliances and the San Diego Gas & Electric Company.

Actor's Quarter Theatre Saved From Closure

Actor's Quarter Theatre, at 480 Elm st., San Diego, has been saved from closure by donations from interested people, according to executive director Ginger Cody, of Lemon Grove.

Mrs. Cody announced that "Suds in Your Eye," which was scheduled to close September 30, will run through this weekend, playing Friday and Saturday nights at 8:30 p.m.

The theatre was faced with closure due to a lack of funds to complete building code requirements. A minimum of $500 was needed to partially finance work on the building, with the remainder of the cost to be paid over a period of time.

As the October 1 deadline approached, Mrs. Cody said, enough money came in to put the theatre back in business. Donations are still being accepted by the community theatre to help defray the remaining cost of the work.

The next Actor's Quarter production will be the traditional children's Christmas play "Magic Toyshop", opening November 11 and running Saturday and Sunday afternoons at 2 p.m.

Friday and Saturday night theatre will continue with the premier showing of "Chinchillas". Regular programming for the Friday and Saturday night theatre will resume in January with "1,000 Clowns", directed by Dixie Sackett.

He will speak at a Democratic rally-picnic starting at 10 a.m. at Juniper and Laurel streets in Balboa Park.

McGovern is scheduled to arrive here Friday night; spend the night at Hotel del Coronado, and attend a series of private campaign meetings.

He will be joined here by Wisconsin Governor Patrick Lucey as part of Lucey's continuing campaign program for McGovern.

A fund-raising dinner is scheduled at 6 p.m. Friday in Coronado at the home of M. Larry Lawrence, S. California chairman of the state Democratic Central Committee.

Newfoundland became a Canadian province in 1949.
